

Exhibits and Display Cases
Town of Chester Library

The Town of Chester Library limits the use of its exhibit spaces to library approved exhibits. Exhibits will be prepared by library staff to reflect topics of interest or potential interest to library visitors and will present a variety of ideas on issues of contemporary interest. Library staff may borrow items from local organizations, groups, or businesses to use in the display and may credit the lender. No library space is available for unsolicited exhibits.
