

Patron Privacy Policy Town of Chester Library

The Town of Chester Library will not sell, share or distribute in any form its patron list of names, addresses or telephone numbers or any other means of identification. The exception is the automated system of SALS/MVLA. Neither will the library allow persons other than the patron to have access to a listing of library materials which the patron has borrowed, including electronic information.

Adopted by Library Trustees 8/21/01